My dog's name is Rooster. I got him 2 years ago for my 9th birthday. I got him at the Petco by Wild Oats. My dad said "what do you want for your birthday?" I said "I want a dog because that's the only animal I would ever get."

My dog is special to me because he always makes me laugh. And he always wants to play with me when I'm bored. My dog is so hyper he always wants to play. He likes music when I'm in my room I put it up loud and it looks like he's dancing.

I love my dog and I would never hurt him. My dog is my buddy until the day we die. That would be the coolest thing if my dog and I could be President. And then I would stop dog abuse. and everything would be perfect.
